Postdoctoral Associate/Lecturer

Boston University
Department of Chemistry
590 Commonwealth Avenue
Boston, Massachusetts 02215

Subject Areas:
Chemistry/General Chemistry, Inorganic Chemistry

Job Description:

The Department of Chemistry at Boston University invites applications for a full-time teaching and research Postdoctoral Associate/Lecturer (PAL) opening starting January 1, 2023.

This innovative program, https://www.bu.edu/chemistry/people/postdoctoral-faculty-fellows/, formerly the Postdoctoral Faculty Fellow (PFF) program, is designed for recent Ph.D. recipients planning to pursue teaching-focused academic careers. Candidates must be capable of supporting the teaching of first-year undergraduate General Chemistry and Inorganic Chemistry. Initial appointments are full-time for one year and are renewable based on satisfactory performance. The duties of the appointment are divided roughly equally between teaching and research. The teaching component will involve guided experiences in teaching undergraduate courses with opportunities to develop new curricula and implement innovative teaching methodologies. Research is conducted in affiliation with a faculty research group. Additional information about the PAL program as well as descriptions of our academic programs and research interests of faculty may be found at https://www.bu.edu/chemistry.

Application Instructions:

Applicants should submit a letter of interest that includes teaching and research objectives, research group preferences, and a current CV, and arrange to have three letters of reference submitted by September 9, 2022 via https://academicjobsonline.org/ajo/jobs/22403. Interviews of applicants will begin on September 19, 2022. Please direct email queries to doerrer@bu.edu.
