POSITION TITLE: Assistant Professor of Criminal Justice (Forensic Science)

PERSONNEL STATUS: Faculty

DEPARTMENT: Behavioral Science and Human Service

OPEN DATE: September 9, 2022

CLOSING DATE: October 9, 2022

Responsibilities: Teaches twelve (12) undergraduate hours (4 courses) per semester. Engages in multiple service related activities such as student advising, including mentoring and service at the departmental, school, college, professional, and community levels; and actively engages in scholarly or creative activities and/or strong demonstration of emerging record thereof including pursuit or external grants.

Qualifications: A Ph.D. in Forensic Science, Chemistry, or scientific related field from an accredited institution required. The ideal candidate will have a minimum of five years of experience teaching in the area of forensic science; publications in relevant forensic science peer-reviewed journals, and active memberships in relevant forensic science organizations. Applicants should be strongly committed to excellence in teaching, student advising, and student mentoring. Preference will be given to candidates with evidence of teaching effectiveness at the undergraduate level, evidence of academic scholarship and research ability/potential to publish in peer-reviewed academic journals, the potential for securing external grants, and evidence of building community partnerships. Candidates must be committed to working with diverse populations and be conversant in multicultural issues.

Preferred Qualifications: Expert witness testimony and experience in local, state and/or federal criminal courts; exceptional ability to collaborate with external partners, law enforcement agencies, and private organizations to develop internships and specialized training; and the ability to secure external funding for research.

Conditions of Employment: Offer of employment is contingent upon successful completion of due diligence background check and verification of credential. Proof of U.S. citizenship or eligibility for U.S. employment (Immigration Control Act of 1986). Please be advised, COVID-19 vaccinations are encouraged but not required for faculty and staff to be employed at Bowie State University. This protocol is subject to change.

This is a full-time tenure track faculty position to start Fall 2023.

APPLICATION: Interested and qualified applicants should go to https://bowiestate.peopleadmin.com/ to apply online. Paper application submissions will not be considered.
Office of Human Resources
Bowie State University
14000 Jericho Park Road
Bowie, MD 20715

Bowie State University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer
Auxiliary aids and services for individuals with disabilities are available upon request. Please contact the University’s EEO Officer at 301-860-3442.

In accordance with the Cleary Act of 2000, you are advised to contact the Bowie State University Campus Police Office for Disclosure of Criminal Incidents that occur on our campus.