

Who are we?

The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) Center for Tobacco Products (CTP) regulates the manufacturing, distribution, and marketing of tobacco products. CTP also educates the public about the harms of tobacco products, working to reduce their appeal and keep them out of the hands of America's youth.

Join us at our Career Fair!

The FDA, Center for Tobacco Products will be hosting a Career Fair and Networking Event on Wednesday, September 12, 2018 from 10am to 3pm at the Silver Spring Civic Building Silver Spring, MD. A list of positions for which we are hiring at this event is included below. Although not all inclusive, these positions list the majority of our targeted hiring efforts:

To register for the Career Fair: https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/CF_Outreach

- | | |
|------------------------------|--|
| ✓ Interdisciplinary Engineer | ✓ Pharmacologist |
| ✓ Biologist | ✓ Regulatory Counsel |
| ✓ Management Analyst | ✓ Regulatory Health Project Manager |
| ✓ Paralegal | ✓ Regulatory Health Information Specialist |
| ✓ Consumer Safety Officer | ✓ Regulatory Information Specialist |
| ✓ Chemist | ✓ Toxicologist |

For a Chemist position, the ideal candidate will have extensive expertise in reviewing product chemistry in marketing applications received by the Center, provides scientific expertise to develop and draft regulations and guidance documents, develops novel research concepts, designs experimental studies investigating the composition of tobacco products and, as appropriate, their emissions, analyzes data obtained from those studies, and drafts and publishes manuscripts based on those studies. The chemist performs a key role in resolving issues that significantly affect scientific programs. Communicates scientifically, technical, or complex concepts in writing as well as communicates findings, interpretations, and proposals orally.

Qualifications: Basic qualifications required for all grades in the position as a Chemist include:

- a Bachelor's degree or higher in physical sciences, life sciences, or engineering, which includes 30 semester hours in chemistry, supplemented by course work in mathematics through differential and integral calculus and at least 6 semester hours of physics
- a combination of education and experience-course work equivalent to a major as described above, plus appropriate experience or additional education.

For more information and to register to the Career Fair, please visit our page at <http://www.fda.gov/ctpjobs>

HHS/FDA/CTP is an Equal Opportunity Employer and offers a Smoke Free workplace

What can the Center for Tobacco Products offer?

We offer innovative, exciting and meaningful opportunities, competitive salaries, extensive professional development and training, comprehensive benefits, flexible work schedules and much more.

To learn more about career opportunities, visit <http://www.fda.gov/ctpjobs>. The Center for Tobacco Products is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

Follow us on FDA/CTP LinkedIn and FDA/CTP Twitter