Two Visiting Full-Time Faculty Positions in General Chemistry

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Department of Chemistry at the College of the Holy Cross invites applications for two visiting full-time faculty appointments for the 2024-2025 academic year to begin in August 2024. Teaching responsibilities include lecture and lab sections of general chemistry I (Atoms & Molecules) in the fall, lecture and lab sections of general chemistry II (Equilibrium & Reactivity) in the spring, and a course for non-science majors. There is also an opportunity for one of the visiting faculty to teach an intermediate level physical chemistry laboratory section. A full-time laboratory supervisor prepares all laboratory experiments and works with faculty members during each lab. More information about the Chemistry Department at Holy Cross can be found on our home page at https://www.holycross.edu/academics/programs/chemistry.

Visiting full-time faculty teach 3 courses each semester and are eligible for research and professional development support as well as taxable reimbursement of relocation costs up to $3000, according to the College’s published policies. All full-time appointments offer competitive salaries and include full benefits. Faculty at the College cultivate a richly diverse academic community, pursue innovative teaching, and create high-impact scholarship. To learn more about faculty life at the College & the Worcester area, candidates are encouraged to visit our Prospective Faculty page.

QUALIFICATIONS
Candidates must demonstrate commitment to, and excellence in, undergraduate teaching as informed by current practice and scholarship in the field. Ph.D. in Chemistry required by the beginning of the appointment.

APPLICATION MATERIALS
Please submit a cover letter addressing the position requirements listed above, a current curriculum vitae, a statement on inclusive excellence in teaching, transcripts, and two confidential letters of recommendation.
