

Assistant/Associate/Full Professor of Chemistry
Department of Chemistry
Position 00101746
Raleigh, NC

The Department of Chemistry at NC State University in Raleigh North Carolina seeks to fill a tenure-track faculty position at the rank of Assistant, Associate, or Full Professor. Candidates who propose to develop or study molecular- and/or materials-focused solutions to societal grand challenges in health and/or energy will be prioritized. In all cases, we seek candidates interested in developing innovative interdisciplinary programs targeting complex chemical and/or biological systems.

Successful candidates are expected to establish a nationally and internationally recognized research program and to demonstrate strong interests and abilities in teaching and mentoring at both the undergraduate and graduate levels. Preference will be given to candidates whose research interests complement existing programs and initiatives in the Department, College of Sciences, and NC State University.

Inclusiveness and diversity are critical to the success of the College of Sciences and the University. The selected candidate will be expected to foster an environment that is supportive and welcoming to all.

Candidates must possess a PhD and post-doctoral experience in Chemistry or a related scientific field. Candidates should apply <https://jobs.ncsu.edu/postings/150249> and submit electronic copies of their curriculum vitae, research proposals, and a cover letter. Attaching a teaching philosophy statement to your online application is optional. Reviewing of applicant materials will begin on November 1, 2021, and the search will remain open until the position is filled.
